FIELD ARTILLERY
SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION
AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES

Tuesday Nov. 20. 1917.

My dearest Mother.

I looked for a letter to-day but did not receive it. Am getting along very well. Of course I will be glad when we are assigned to regular regiments. That will be the best training of all, the real practical training and not so much of this theoretical and note book training. This afternoon we were out on horses beating positions. Had a real good time of it. The ballistic and fortification lectures are very difficult. Received a pair of heavy Bedford riding breeches this afternoon and they will certainly come in useful for I will get to use them for equitation almost every day.

I would love to know how every thing is getting along at home. I made application for $0.000<sup>00</sup> dollars life insurance payable to Sister in case any thing unexpectedly happens to me. It is very good to be prepared at least. I believe I wrote you that I took out five $50<sup>00</sup> bonds for you. They will be paid for monthly. Besides that I have saved 1250 francs about $200<sup>00</sup> and it is only ten days until I will get another months pay. We get including foreign pay of 10% per month $183<sup>33</sup>. There is some talk that we will have at least a week of Xmas and if we do I am going to travel all over this country.

With much love to you and Daddy.
